

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1909.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, JULY 26, 1906.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE CITY STREET.

The stony street is pitiless;
The night is like the day;
We cannot run for weariness;
There is no place to play!
The houses are a fevered wall,
The streets a fiery way,
We cry for water, and we fall—
There is no place to play!

Dear angels, touch our burning brows
With your cool hands, we pray,
And take us where the Christ allows
His little ones to play!

Skidoo from care and trouble and go to the Old Reliable Germantown Fair.

Mr. Charles D. Roberts remembers THE LEDGER with late copies of Denver (Col.) papers, telling all about the Elks' big reunion.

Cashier J. N. Kehoe is just a little bit proud of appearance of things at the Banking House of Mitchell Finch & Co. since the renovation of the interior. It is now one of the prettiest banking establishments in the city.

Because of the absence of the Pastor, Rev. Felix K. Struve, there will be no services at the First M. E. Church, South, next Sunday morning. The usual services will be held on Sunday, August 5th. The friends will kindly take notice.

Ladies, have you seen our new line of Belt Buckles, Bracelets, Side and Back Combs, Hand Bags, Scarf and Stick Pins, Fobs and Chains, Dress Pins, Hat Pins? These goods are all positively new and stylish. You can see them in our show windows. Call and see them.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

The best Ice Cream Soda and Phosphates are at Ray's Soda Fountain, 5 cents.

About five hundred attended the Baldwin sale yesterday. Good prices prevailed and about $3,500 was realized. There will be another sale in the fall of over a hundred head of horses.

Messrs. Samuel E. Bruce, W. K. Johnson and George M. Thomas, Jr., of Vanceburg were in the city yesterday. The former gentleman while here was interviewing the Spar Pressed Brick Company in regard to the purchase of several carloads of their justly celebrated product.

Yesterday afternoon a double team belonging to H. T. Campbell of the county frightened at a passing train in Front street and ran off. In their headlong flight the horses sheered onto the pavement and the tongue of the wagon struck a telephone pole a center shot and knocked it over against the Manhattan Restaurant. The runaways were caught, and aside from the disjointed telephone pole and broken wagon tongue no other damage was sustained.

Police Court.

Thomas Turner, a mere lad not yet thirteen years of age, had his examining trial yesterday afternoon before Judge Whitaker on the grave charge of breaking into the store of P. Gantley in Plum street. The accused was represented by Judge G. W. Adair and the case was prosecuted by City Attorney Wood. After hearing the testimony Judge Whitaker held him over to the September term of the Circuit Court in the sum of $200, and in default he was committed to Jail. The picture was a pitiable one—the trembling boy, not fully realizing his precarious position, the ashen features of the one-armed father, and the tear-stained face of the devoted mother on whom the sorrow falls most heavily, appealed to the softer nature and touched the heart of the most callous observer.

Mrs. Will Kiff is quite ill with flux at her home at Helena.

L. T. Gaebke & Co. handle our best Coal. CAMPBELL CREEK COAL CO.

William VanArsdale of Fleming has been appointed a guard in the Frankfort Penitentiary.

At Flemingsburg, Judge Sonesley, after hearing lengthy arguments from both sides of the case, imposed a fine of $50 on the Adams Express Company for taking a barrel of beer shipped from Cincinnati to a citizen of Flemingsburg. The case is an important one, and will go to the Court of Appeals and possibly to the Federal Court for final settlement.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

State and county taxes for 1906 are in the Sheriff's hands for collection. Under the acts of the last Legislature, the penalty will be added on November 1st. Your attention is called to the new law printed on the tax notices posted throughout the county.

JAMES MACKEY, Sheriff of Mason County.

The new L. and N. Depot at Ewing is finished.

With many thanks to those who have so long and so generously favored me with their patronage, I will be under additional obligations to those indebted if they will make prompt settlement of bills, which are now ready at my former store, in order that my business may be closed up.

Mrs. L. V. DAVIS.

James C. Rogers, appointed by the Fayette Circuit Court some time ago as Receiver of the Southern Mutual Investment Company and the American Reserve Bond Company, will endeavor to hold the Directors of the old Southern Mutual Investment Company responsible for the liabilities of the other company, which have been fixed at about $1,000,000.

Buck Johnson shipped a fine drove of hogs to Cincinnati Tuesday.

Miss Stella Archdeacon of West Third street still continues very ill.

Miss Mary Ellison of Wynneshoro, S. C., has been visiting Mrs. Nellie W. Boggs at Washington. She left yesterday for a visit with friends at Avondale, Cincinnati.

The longest funeral procession that ever passed through Washington followed the remains of Mr. Fox Gullfoyle to the Cemetery yesterday. There were over two hundred vehicles, and the cortege was more than two miles in length.

President John Duley, in his effort to make the Tobacco Fair this year bigger and better than ever, has arranged for a Farmers' Institute, to be held by the Commissioner of Agriculture, on February 22d. These Institutes are of much interest to farmers and one to be held in connection with the big Tobacco Fair will be of especial importance.

Hinton C. Holmes, a West Union merchant, was shot and killed by Policeman J. L. Rossiter in front of the Federal Building, near Fifth and Main streets, Cincinnati, yesterday morning. Holmes had met with business reverses some two years ago, and lately had been considered mentally unbalanced. Yesterday in Cincinnati, while in a crazy fit, he attacked Policeman Rossiter, firing three shots at him before the officer returned fire. Eye-witnesses testified to the officer's coolness when attacked by Holmes, and no arrest was made.

A letter received here from Cincinnati states that W. A. Byrno, who was paralyzed in the left side several days ago, is now a patient in the hospital, and his physician expresses very little hope for a complete recovery.

CATTLE KILLED

And Now Who Will Have to Foot the Big Butcher Bill?

Yesterday forenoon between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock a bunch of cattle, twenty-seven head in all, belonging to Mr. R. O. Chambers of the Sardia neighborhood, were herded on the grade at the foot of Limestone street waiting to be taken aboard the Greenland to Long & West, Cincinnati, having been billed and transportation paid.

When the Eastbound C. and O. passenger train No. 8 passed by, the cattle became panic-stricken and scattered.

Twelve of the number ran up the switch leading from Limestone street to the main track and continued their course pell-mell East over the viaduct.

When midway between Limestone and Bridge they were struck by No. 77 Westbound freight and knocked right and left off the track.

Out of the number only one escaped unhurt. One was killed outright, four died in an hour, and the others will die from injuries.

The cattle were appraised by Messrs. Calvert, Brightman and Zweigart and their value placed at $500.

Elder F. M. Tinder of Lancaster, formerly of Mayslick, is to begin a protracted meeting to-night at the Bethel Christian Church.

AND now Australia is sending $2,500,000 in gold to this country. Mr. BRYAN had best hurry home and stop this sort of thing.

It is to be said of RUSSELL SAGE, remarks The Commercial Tribune, that the taint of railway wreckings or kindred amusements of Wall street were never laid at his door.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN has accepted an invitation to speak in Cincinnati about September 10th; but he may also have something to say about 16 to 1 and the next Presidency.

IN future Cincinnati proposes to have a "safe and sane" Fourth of July. An ordinance just offered in the City Council prohibits the sale of explosives and weapons. A similar law in every city would save hundreds of lives and thousands of limbs.

IN opening his campaign for the United States Senatorship, Governor BECKHAM promised his competitors a "square deal." However, before the race is ended, they may conclude that they got a "raw deal." In any event, there's quite certain to be a "deal"—most likely several of them.

MAYOR STUDLEY of New Haven has declared in favor of municipal insurance. He says that his city pays fire insurance premiums of about $500,000 a year, while the fire losses amount to about $125,000, leaving an annual profit to the companies of about $375,000, and thinks his plan will reduce by 75% the rates now paid.

WHAT a lucky devil the poor devil is after all. His financial worries end at the grave; but the troubles of the rich devil just begin there. The day before RUSSELL SAGE was buried a regiment or two of nephews and nieces had planned an attack all along the line on the $100,000,000 that the unfortunate old fellow was forced to abandon at Colonel CHARON's gang-plank.

THE Ministers of Newport—the Lord be praised—are a common-sense, practical set. By this token, Governor BECKHAM will not be called on to enforce the Sunday Law in that city. The Pastors of the various Churches, it is said, have concluded not to take radical measures on this question, but to continue the fight against gambling. As saloons are now conducted on Sundays, visitors to the city or others are led to believe that no business is conducted. Persons are not permitted to congregate on the sidewalk, the front doors are closed and blinds drawn. To resort to a greater extreme might not bring about better results. One Minister who has been in Newport fourteen years states that there is a better Sunday observance than at any time during those years.

WHEN AUNTIE WAS SILENCED.

"Auntie" was showing off her little nephew, aged 2, to an admirer, who was calling upon her for the second time, says Pilgrim. He was a very bright youngster and during a pause in his performance specially requested by "auntie" he suddenly remembered the way she had been teasing him before the caller had arrived and decided to turn the tables on her. So he pointed a chubby finger at the door and said, "My rug!" Auntie at once caught the spirit of the thing and cried emphatically, "No, my rug!" "My dress," said her little nephew, pointing to auntie's gown. "No, my dress," replied auntie, delighted to have an opportunity to show how cute he was. Then the little boy sidled over to the caller and, pointing at him, cried, "My man!" Silence on the part of auntie.

I DON'T HANDLE ANY MEATS OR LARD MADE IN CHICAGO

Never did. My special brands of Sugar Cured Hams and Breakfast Bacon, cured from meat out of young, healthy, corn-fed hogs, put up in RED CANVAS, is made specially for my trade and is guaranteed to be as good as can be cured. I was the introducer of Red Canvas Meats, and as evidence of the superior quality of these meats I sell in red canvas others are trying to imitate by having red canvas, but in order to have the safe side buy only the STAR BRANDS OF HAMS AND BREAKFAST BACON IN RED CANVAS sold only by me. Every piece guaranteed.

My PURE LARD is made from the same grade of selected hogs, and no lard can be produced. Give these goods a trial and you will use no other.
My fine BLENDED COFFEES and PERFECTED FLOUR continue to lead in popularity. Buy them once and you become a regular customer on these goods.
In FINE TEAS I have no competitor. I buy directly from the importers in New York, and can give the best value for your money of any house in our city.

FRESH VEGETABLES AND FRUITS

Received daily. Nothing stale or unwholesome in this line ever offered. My country trade has increased rapidly. I want more of it, and if polite and courteous attention and fair dealing will get it I intend to have it. Come in and make my house your headquarters when in the city. You are always welcome, and when you want the best always come to me. Thanking all for past favors, and soliciting a continuance of same.

No Operation

Mrs. Malinda Akers, of Basham, Va., writes: "I had what doctors call 'prolapse,' and couldn't stand straight. I had pain in my back and shoulders, and was very irregular and profuse. Doctors said an operation was needed, but I couldn't bear the thought of the knife. After taking three bottles of Wine of Cardui, I could walk around. Can now do my housework and am in splendid health."

Cardui is a pure, vegetable, medicinal essence, especially adapted to cure women's diseases. It relieves excessive periodical pains, regulates irregularities, and is a safe, pleasant and reliable remedy for all sick women. In successful use for over 70 years. Try it.

Henry Laird of Millersburg has been granted a patent on a scaffold.

The members of the Kentucky Press Association, in session at Grayson Springs, voted to appoint a committee to draft resolutions pledging them to support candidates for office who are known to be favorable to the interests of the newspapers.

The motive for the murder of Stanford White is possibly indicated in a series of letters written by Mrs. C. J. Holman, mother of Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, to Mr. White, and after the latter's death found among his effects. In the letters Mrs. Holman refers to Thaw as a scoundrel, a villain, and a man with murderous intent in his heart. She tells of an interview she had with Thaw, while they were in Paris, and declares that he wanted her to sign an affidavit to the effect that he had never intended to make Evelyn his wife.

River News

The gage marks 11.7 and falling.

There is a fine packet stage in the Ohio now.

The Goldenrod is on the Marine Ways at Madison.

The Greenwood will be up tonight for points above.

A slight rise is reported in the Allegheny and Monongahela.

A number of towboats will reach Pittsburgh on this swell.

The Government work at Cullom's Ripple is being pushed forward vigorously.

The Kanawha from Charleston was the first large packet to reach Pittsburgh in many weeks.

Steamboatmen are of the opinion that there will not be any very low water in the Ohio during the summer.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; hence cases of deafness caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

PUBLIC LEADER

The Grand Lodge of Colored Knights of Pythias is now in its annual session at Henderson.

Mrs. Delilah Moore, aged 92, of Fairview, Fleming county, has pieced and quilted a large quilt in the last few months.

Miss Flora Young has returned from Fleming county, where she has been engaged as professional nurse for several days.

Mr. Moon, the Ripley well-digger, has the contract to bore several wells between Lawrence Creek and this city for the use of the C. and O. crew at work on the double track just West of here.

Oscar McIntire of Fleming county had two sheep and a lamb killed by dogs a few nights ago. He has made out a claim under the new dog and sheep law, but it cannot be paid for a year or more, as no money will be collected into the fund by the state until next year. The dogs will be assessed on the 15th day of the coming September.

Mr. Claude Kirk, aged 22, and Miss Effie Conway, aged 20, of Hillsboro, Fleming county, were married yesterday in the parlor of the St. Charles Hotel, Rev. Joseph M. Evans officiating.

Taking Care of Dewey

"What has become of Admiral George Dewey, and what is he doing now?"

This inquiry, sent to The St. Louis Globe-Democrat, elicited the following information:

Taken all in all there is perhaps no man in the United States in the service of the Government or out of it who is in a more enviable position than Admiral Dewey. Congress has given him the rank, pay and allowance of an Admiral of the Navy, reviving the rank for his benefit. He is absolutely independent of the Secretary of the Navy and of the President of the United States.

He cannot be retired and he cannot be disciplined by reduction in rank or any of the other usual means employed. The place gives him an annual income of $15,500.

If he chose to do so he could close down his desk, go home and never turn his hand over in the way of work, either for the Navy or for any one else, and his pay and allowance would go on as long as he lives; but the Admiral prefers to work and to work hard.

He is at the head of the Navy General Board, charged with the duty of devising general plans for improvement of the Navy, the management of the ships, the handling of officers and men and the control of the great Government shipyards. Every day when he is not at sea for the maneuvers he is at his desk in his office attending to the meeting of the Board.

Admiral Dewey is much loved and much respected. He is a dapper little fellow, not much more than five feet in height. His clothes fit him like the naval uniform, without crease or bag anywhere.

They do say that the Admiral's Chinese valet has no less than twenty new suits of clothes and ten pairs of shoes to take care of at a time. The Admiral is not a dandy, merely a well-groomed man without seeming to have any thought of his personal appearance.

He has but one fad, if fad it may be called, and that is his love for animals. He has one of the finest teams of driving horses in the city and also an ugly English bulldog. The dog went through the battle of Manila Bay with Dewey, so they are real banties.

When the Admiral was making a tour of inspection of the fleet the dog went along and was allowed the run of the vessel while his master was aboard. On one ship the Admiral returned from the men's quarters just in time to encounter the dog sailing in a most hurried fashion from the officers' quarters with the toe of an officer's boot in hot pursuit.

Admiral Dewey was white with anger and surprise. In a second when the Captain appeared, following the direction of the toe of his boot, the Admiral, controlling himself as best he could, demanded:

"Sir, what do you mean by kicking my dog in that manner?"

The Captain came to a quick salute and his face, it was noted, was as pale and drawn with suppressed anger as was that of the Admiral.

"Sir," said he, "I would have kicked that dog if he had been the property of the Supreme Being; but, sir, I would not have kicked him, and did not kick him, until he had chewed the legs out of two $15 pairs of uniform trousers and had ruined a deluxe edition of the Naval Regulations, as well as killed the ship's feline mascot."

Then they both laughed.

Great American Calamities

The great Chicago fire, October 11th, 1871, 17,450 buildings burned and $10,000,000 worth of property.

The great fire in Boston, November 9th, 1872, burning fifty acres of buildings, valued at $75,000,000.

The Charleston earthquake, August 31st, 1880, destroying property valued at $8,000,000.

The Johnstown flood, May 31st, 1889, destroying 2,235 lives (estimated) and $10,000,000 worth of property.

The Galveston disaster, September 8th, 1900, destroying 6,000 lives and 7,000 buildings valued at $18,000,000.

The Baltimore fire, 1904, destroying property valued at $30,000,000.

San Francisco earthquake and fire, April, 1906, destroying 1,000 lives and $500,000,000 worth of property.

Captain William Agnew, Pilot Frank Agnew and Mate Connell of the steamer Bonanza, who were taken to fronton for a preliminary trial in connection with the shooting on the boat last Saturday night, were released from custody upon a bond of $500 each. The remainder of the crew arrested, Fireman Peter Finley, Bat Manoway, Jim Minard and Harry Epstein, were lodged in Jail.

A Thorough Consideration

Is not only justice to the manufacturer, it is essential to the merchant—due consideration be given the lines on which he builds his custom. The third and last one who, however, should be the more interested is the one who wears, the one that pays the expenses, all that are included between the time it is doffed from the sheep until donned by man.

CONSIDERATION and COMPARISON

By customers and critics are invited to examine Clothing, Furnishings and Traveling Accessories that are properly constructed. Guaranteed to be higher grade and lower price than others offer. We call your attention especially to the style, fit and workmanship of the H. S. & M. for men, the Perfection for youths, while E. S. & Co. (Extra good) provide the proper wear for the little men. You can get the money in return for any article purchased here. Respectfully,

HERE AT HOME. Maysville Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed "the old Quaker Remedy" so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Maysville citizen.

Honry Bertram, shoemaker, of 27 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I believe everybody in Maysville has read in the papers the testimony I gave in March, 1900, about Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have been asked again and again by residents of this town if that statement were true. For the benefit of persons who may now be suffering from forms of kidney trouble I repeat my testimony. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Co.'s Drugstore I had suffered for some time with backache and a tired feeling and having aching in and about the kidneys. Being a shoemaker I thought my trouble was caused by my work, for every time I took a cold it settled in my back, but Doan's Kidney Pills quickly rid me of the trouble, and never from that time to this have I had any cause to complain of my back or kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills perform exactly what they promise, and to be honest with you, I will say that in my opinion there is no remedy for kidney disorders equal to Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitutes.
